

Non-Functional Requirements

- User confidentiality/data integrity (especially personal information)
- User friendly user interface design
- Responsive and efficient application design
- Secure data submission to database
- Accessible via computer, tablet, or smartphone
- Should work on all internet-connected devices that have access to a browser
- Interactive buttons for mentioned functions
- Contact functionality for issues or super administrator
- Application reliability (especially the ability to reliably host meetings) and ironing out of bugs that may affect code safety and affect user experience